The Last Remaining Seats is the signature series of classic films hosted by the Los Angeles Conservancy, which activates the Broadway theaters for screenings of classic films. The series debuted on July 15, 1987, at the Orpheum with Buster Keaton's silent movie "Steamboat Bill, Jr.", and is now in its 31st year.

This year's season runs from June 3 - 24, 2017 and stars classic movies such as "L.A. Confidential", "E.T. The Extra-Terrestrial", "20,000 Leagues Under the Sea" and "La Muerte de un Burocrata" co-presented with the Latin American Cinemateca of Los Angeles.

The wildest party in Las Vegas is heading to Los Angeles for a limited season.

Now in its sixth sold-out year at Caesars Palace, Absinthe was recently named "the #1 greatest show in Las Vegas history" by Las Vegas Weekly.

Hosted by the foul-mouthed Gazillionaire and inspired by the absinthe-drenched cabarets of late 19th century Europe, Absinthe is an adult-themed cocktail of circus, burlesque and vaudeville for a 21st century audience.

Grab a drink and enter an immersive adult-playground where audience members get up close and personal as the artists of Absinthe perform on the most intimate stage in town. Not for the faint-hearted, these ridiculously talented and sexy performers from across the globe mix outrageous comedy with jaw-dropping feats of virtuosity, strength, balance and danger.

Absinthe is recommended for ages 18 and above. The performance features some nudity and strong language.

For tickets click here, and make sure to use code DTLA at checkout for a discount. Hurry before the season ends in

The Los Angeles Police Department hosted a "Coffee with a Cop" at the 6th and Spring Starbucks, with the mission of breaking the barriers between police officers and community members, stakeholders and residents. The event served as a forum for citizens to ask questions, voice concerns and also meet the officers in the neighborhood.

The LAPD informational table was filled with take home one-sheets providing contact numbers for local security and police services, and tips on how to remain safe and alert on the streets.

Thank you to the LAPD Central Area Community Relations and to Starbucks for hosting us, we look forward to more events like this one!

Los Angeles and many cities across the nation, organized labor and immigration groups staged dozens of May Day demonstrations on Monday, with the intent to voice criticism on the current administration.

In Los Angeles, more than 100 groups, representing a wide range of issues, marched from MacArthur Park to Los Angeles City Hall, a second contingency moved from Olympic Blvd to City Hall on Broadway. Organizers expected large crowds and had been coordinating for months with police to ensure that the event remained peaceful.

As of about 1:30 p.m., police were estimating that about 15,000 people participated in L.A.'s May Day marches. Throughout the day, marchers, allies and commuters remained calm and organized. Police officers escorted the crowds and were visible at all points of the route, while fire department units and EMT's lined the streets handing out water to marchers.

The Historic Core Business Improvement District deeply thanks our LAPD officers and LAFD units for their support and commitment in ensuring the safety and well-being of all angelinos.

Thank you for sharing in our community!
